

Welcome in!

We took over this storied mercantile with a simple idea: good food, good people, and a place to slow down for a minute. Nothing fancy—just a counter to gather around, some good barbecue, and a chance to be part of something that feels like home.

We're here for the everyday folks, the road-weary travelers, the locals who keep showing up, and anyone who believes that community still matters.

Thanks for stopping in, supporting small, and being part of this thing with us.

We're glad you're here.

—Will & Kelly
